STANFORD, CA, USA - First Serve East Palo Alto Tennis & Tutoring (EPATT) welcomed one of the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour's top players, Agnieszka Radwanska, for a classroom chat this week, the student athletes having the chance to ask questions and have their picture taken with the world No.13.

Located on the campus of Stanford University, the First Serve EPATT classroom was the venue for the event. The student athletes did their research and were ready to ask the Polish star questions, from how many languages she speaks to what her favorite surface is, to what she sees herself doing after tennis. She answered the latter by saying she will "rest on an island somewhere." Every child received a Sony Ericsson hat and T-Mobile shirt as part of the visit.

The second season of First Serve's National Student Athlete Competition is almost wrapped up. It began on July 16, 2008, and will end on August 11, 2009. There are separate divisions for boys and girls, and each gender is also split into two divisions, one for lower-middle school and one for high school.

First Serve is the only national organization that utilizes tennis with the solitary purpose of empowering youth with the skills, values and experience they need to be responsible, productive and successful in life. More about the organization can be found at its official website, www.firstserve.org.
